Dear Learned:

I was delighted to receive the other day a copy of your lectures on the Bill of Rights. I mentioned to Mary my interest in the lectures and she was the kind missionary for me.

Tomorrow I leave for the South for a week's holiday and I am taking your booklet with me. Part of the pleasure of the vacation will be that Mary and Norris plan to be there also.

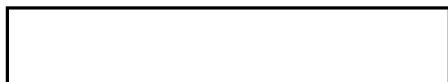

I get to New York too seldom these days and then only for a few hours at a stretch. Next time I shall make it longer and hope to have the pleasure of seeing you.

Clover joins me in affectionate regards to you both.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

The Honorable Learned Hand
